

Chairman's Notes - June 2018 - Tammuz 5778

Dear Friends,

We have a fascinating event planned for Thursday, June 28th in the George Goddard Hall, at 8pm. It is in celebration of Israel 70 and is called Dreams of a Nation, a musical extravaganza, starring Chazan Jonny Turgel and pianist Josh Nesbitt, and presented by Rabbi Andrew Shaw. It is being sponsored by YINN and McDonald International Shuls, together with Mizrachi UK. This has already been presented twice in London to much acclaim. We would like this to be really successful, therefore please support this event and apply for tickets, either through the Shul mailbox, or by calling Sue Levy. Laura Shuck is responsible for ticket sales for McDonald International Shul. Ticket price is NIS 100. Jonny will be dedicating his performance in memory of his grandma Gena Turgel who recently passed away, people who knew her may wish to attend the event in her honour.

We need more people to collect salads from Prudag for the Shul kiddushim. At present we only have a small number of people on the rota. If you can help by collecting on Thursdays, please contact Sue Levy and she will add you to the rota. Many thanks.

We also need extra support to help clear up the food and tables from the seuda shlishit on motza'ei Shabbat after maariv. If you can assist, the rota teams will be very grateful. Please contact me if you can assist.

I don't really like to end on a negative note. However, it has been reported to me that a number of people are going down to kiddush before the end of the Shabbat service, putting food on plates and eating before the Rabbi has come down to make kiddush. Other than people using wheelchairs or walkers, who want to exit the Shul in order not to hold up the able bodied members, nobody should be moving down to the kiddush early to beat the queues. Please cooperate with this.

Kind regards,

Hilton
